

STUDENTSExcusing Students From School

To protect children, it is necessary to continue rigid precautionary procedures to prevent indiscriminate excusing of students from school premises and to prevent the release of students to unauthorized persons. To this end, the superintendent shall develop procedures and regulations regarding the excusing of students from school. Such procedures will be included in the elementary, middle school and high school Student/Parent Handbooks.

Reference: Elementary, Middle and High School
Student/Parent Handbooks

POLICY

Adopted: 09-08-75

Amended: 04-16-07

Reviewed: 01-28-13