

INSTRUCTION*Public Performance by Students Before Non-School Groups

The board recognizes the value of student participation in performances before non-school groups. It is understood that the director of the performing group will use professional judgment when balancing such activities with the students' academic program.

The superintendent of schools may develop regulations concerning the educational value, as well as the safety and general welfare of staff and students, during such performances subject to building principal approval.

Policy

Adopted: 01-18-60 (former Policy 1321)

Amended: 06-12-06

Reviewed: